Research a proverb, its origin, and its meaning. Cite your sources.
Sketch at least three different layout ideas for your banner.
Get feedback from classmates and your teacher on the designs.
Evaluate your design according to PARC principles. Revise if necessary. Create a final design sketch.
Use Publisher to lay out the banner and add the small text.
Use Illustrator to create special text effects for the proverb.
Create a background for your banner. Add other elements (clip art, a border, color) as desired.
Check for spelling and other errors and revise as necessary.
Follow directions to save your work.
Use Publisher to tile print your design. Assemble by trimming and taping the design together.
