

Media Correlations to Street Law Student Edition Chapters

This media list includes suggestions for videotapes, DVDs, audiotapes, television and radio shows, as well as CD-ROMs. Most were recommended by Street Law teachers who have used them successfully in their classrooms. Note that some of these films are rated R and that some of the CD-ROMs involve solving crimes, so they may include disturbing themes, information, or images. As always, be sure to preview each resource before showing it to students, and stay mindful of school policies about media in the classroom. Distributor and/or publisher contact information for each resource follows this chart. Distributors for contemporary or classic films are not listed because they are available from many common vendors.
