Dressing for the Occasion

What you wear affects the impression you make on others. Your clothing can also offer clues to the activities you enjoy.

Part I Directions: Read the name of each activity or occasion in the left column below. Determine appropriate clothing a teen might wear for each of these events. In the right column, describe suitable clothing for both males (M) and females (F).

Activities and Occasions	Appropriate Clothing
1. Football game and pizza party	M:
	F:
2. School dance	M:
	F:
3. Grandparent's birthday party	M:
	F:
4. School	M:
	F:
5. Wedding	M:
	F:
6. Bicycling	M:
	F:
7. Hiking around a lake	M:
	F:
8. Visit to a parent's place of work	M:
	F:

Part II Directions: Find clothing in a catalog that would be appropriate to wear for a job interview. Use a separate sheet of paper to describe the outfit in detail, and tell why you selected it. If possible, attach the catalog picture to the paper.
