Project Assessment Rubric

| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Technical Requirements Has the student met the technical requirements of the project as assigned? | No technical requirements have been met. | The student has met some of the technical requirements. | The student has met the technical requirements. | The student has exceeded the technical requirements. |
| Content Does the project contain the required content as assigned? | No content requirements of the project have been met. | The student has met some of the content requirements. | The student has met the content requirements of the project. | The student has exceeded the content requirements of the project. |
| Organization Is the information in the project well organized and appropriate to the goals of the project? | The information in the project is not understandable. | The organization of information can be followed with difficulty but is not appropriate to the goals. | The organization of information is adequate and appropriate to the goals. | The organization is logical and interesting; the goals are met in creative ways. |
| Design Is the design understandable and appropriate to the goals of the project? | The design detracts from the clarity of the project. | The design is somewhat understandable but is not appropriate to the goals. | The design is clear and adequate to the goals. | The design is compelling and creative and serves the goals. |
| Mechanics Is the text or the speech (for oral presentations) grammatically correct? | The text has more than ten grammatical errors. The student has great difficulty speaking clearly and correctly. | The text has six to nine grammatical errors. The student has some difficulty speaking clearly and correctly. | The text has two to five grammatical errors. The student has little difficulty speaking clearly and correctly. | The text has no grammatical errors. The student's speaking is clear and correct. |