Chapter 34 Risk Management

Section 34.1 Business Risk Management

Digital Nation Activity: When Employees Tweet Too Much

Directions Are workers costing their employees money by using personal e-mail, surfing the Web, or using Facebook, MySpace, or Twitter during work time? Answer the following questions.

tim	e? Answer the following questions.
1.	Create a questionnaire that asks whether workers do any of these activities during work how long they spend on them, what their opinions are about them, and whether or not they are a problem for productivity.
2.	Administer the survey to three workers and three managers. Summarize your key findings in a bulleted list.
