

Chapter 12 Bonds and Mutual Funds

College and Career Readiness: Interpersonal Skills

Directions Being able to connect personally to people is a skill. Attitude, behavior, manners, and appearance all influence how people interact with one another. Choose one of the following careers, or add one you are interested in, and answer the questions.

Software Architect	Physical Therapist	Teacher
Sales Manager	Nurse	Accountant
Musician	Mechanic	Detective

List some of the interpersonal skills that are needed in this job.

---

---

---

---

What will happen if someone in the chosen career had poor interpersonal skills?

---

---

---

---

If you were going to employ a person in the career you chose, what kind of interpersonal skills would you want him or her to have?

---

---

---

---

Name _____ Date _____ Class _____

Have you ever visited someone in this job who did not have good interpersonal skills? If so, what was it like?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Are interpersonal skills in this field optional, or do these skills play a role in success in this field?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

How are interpersonal skills helpful in this job? Does the media provide an accurate and realistic portrayal of this job?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---